

EPUS Committee Report
April 2017

- EPUS has endorsed the revisions made to the following policies and is recommending the endorsement of these revised policies by the Faculty Assembly:
  - 200-005 Winterim and Spring Break Course Offerings and Funding
  - 600-001 Student Response Team
- Faculty comments and questions regarding the revisions to the Guidelines and Procedures for Research Misconduct Allegations will be gathered at the Faculty Assembly meeting on Friday.
  - Comments and questions can also be submitted to Andrea Hutchins (andrea.hutchins@uccs.edu) by April 21, 2017.
  - The comments and questions will be reviewed by EPUS and shared with Kelli Klebe, Associate Vice Chancellor for Research and Faculty Development, with recommendations for revisions where appropriate.
- Faculty comments and questions on the Guidelines for Externally-Funded Changes to Faculty Work Assignments (dated December 20, 2004) were returned to Kelli Klebe, Associate Vice Chancellor for Research and Faculty Development, for consideration.
- A discussion of unauthorized filming or recording of faculty and/or classes and unauthorized posting of films or recordings taken of faculty or during classes to social media was held during the March Faculty Assembly meeting. Based on feedback received, during AY 2017-2018 EPUS will explore whether development of a policy is necessary or if sections to address these concerns could be incorporated into an existing policy.
