Subject:[faculty-l] Call for Proposals - FAWC Mini-Grants

Message from:
Jennifer Eltringham - jeltring@uccs.edu

The Faculty Assembly Women's Committee is now accepting proposals for the fall round of mini-grants for research, creative works, and development on gender-related issues.

Due to COVID-19 travel restrictions, we are prioritizing funding for projects that are non-travel related for Spring 2021. If you are hoping to travel in Summer 2021, we will consider your request, but you must adhere to campus travel guidelines. If you are requesting travel funds, please include a justification, a contingency plan in case of cancellation, and any other sources of funding you will be pursuing.

For more information on application requirements and eligibility, see the attached call for proposals. Applications must be received by November 16, 2020.

For questions, contact fawc@uccs.edu.
