Subject: [faculty-l] Faculty Assembly President's Report

Message from: Melissa Benton mbenton@uccs.edu

Dear Colleagues,

Welcome back to the spring semester! I hope you had an enjoyable holiday.

Our next Faculty Representative Assembly meeting is on Friday, February 8, 2019. The agenda will be sent out by email. Please review it, and if you have questions or concerns that you want brought forward, contact your College representatives and let them know.

Here is an update on what is happening at the campus and system level.

Faculty Elections – As a reminder, Faculty Assembly elections will be held in this semester for the 2019-2020 academic year. Mary Coussons-Read has already sent out the call for nominations. Please consider self-nominating for one of the many positions available. Your service in campus and system organizations ensures that faculty shared governance is maintained at all levels.

Presidential Search – The search committee for a new CU President has been formed. The search firm is collecting nominations for candidates. Here is the link to the nomination site CUCCEO@Whelesspartners.com. We want at least 25 nominations in order to develop a good pool of candidates. Please consider nominating anyone you believe fits the qualifications for President of University. Here is the link to the search committee charge and description of the qualifications <https://www.cu.edu/presidential-search/search-committee/charge-presidential-search-committee>.

Proposed Amendments to the Faculty Assembly Constitution – We will be voting on two proposed amendments to the Faculty Assembly Constitution at the February 8 meeting. The proposed changes are included in the agenda that will be sent out prior to the meeting. Please review them and provide any feedback to your Faculty Assembly Representatives who will be voting whether to move the amendments forward for full faculty vote. If moved forward, the amendments will require approval of two-thirds of the full faculty, so each of your votes will be critical to the process.

Please don't hesitate to contact me directly if you have questions or concerns.

Respectfully,

Melissa Benton

2018-20189 Faculty Assembly President
