

TEACHING WITH TECHNOLOGY COMMITTEE
Meeting – 12:15 Thursday, October 25, 2018
EPC 304C

Minutes

Me, Martin, Scott, Norah, Sherry, Carmen

NEW BUSINESS

1. Canvas
  - a. Panopto
    - i. Permissions fixed
    - ii. Migration from Mediasite almost done
  - b. iClicker Cloud, Teams on lab/podium computers
  - c. RedShelf – still using for spring
  - d. Boulder developing auto-upload of grades to CU-SIS
  - e. Students to be enrolled in Sp19 courses ~11/17
2. MLTLD 1/17: Call for proposals open until 11/14, registration to start soon
3. CDHE OER grants
  - a. $500K this year, $1.2M each of next two
  - b. UCCS participating in multi-campus institutional proposal
    - i. Awareness, review/evaluate, adopt/adapt
    - ii. Workshops, training, support
  - c. Individual proposals welcome
  - d. Creating OER Council
4. Black Belt 24/7 Help Desk starting soon
5. Ownership of educational materials*

Next Meeting – 12:15 Thursday, November 29 in EPC 304C

*“Whereas the University of Colorado assigns any ownership it has in educational materials to the person or people who create such materials in Administrative Policy Statement 1014--Intellectual Property That is Educational Materials, and whereas the Faculty Assembly Executive Committee of the University of Colorado Colorado Springs (UCCS) has become aware of instances where the ownership rights for educational materials have been jeopardized or violated by practices on our campus, be it resolved that the Faculty Representative Assembly supports the protection of ownership rights for educational materials by the person or people who created the materials and recommends that UCCS administrators, faculty and staff receive training to ensure that ownership rights for educational materials are appropriately protected.”